

Call for Papers:

8TH UNISA CLASSICS COLLOQUIUM

University of South Africa, Pretoria
Date: October 25 - 27, 2007

THEME:

Madness and Mental Composure

KEYNOTE SPEAKER:

William V. Harris, Professor of History, Columbia University

Contributions are invited on topics related to the theme, which seeks to explore ancient views and literary themes on mental health, madness, delusion, and other forms of mental instability, and the relationship between sanity and its deviations. While the colloquium focuses on classical literature, we encourage proposals from related fields and of an interdisciplinary nature.

Papers are limited to 45 minutes. Please submit abstracts of appr. 200 words via e-mail attachment to bosmapr@unisa.ac.za by 15 July 2007. The body of your email should include your name, institution, department, e-mail address, and the title of your paper. If necessary, submissions may also be sent via post to the following address:

Department of Classics and Modern European Languages
University of South Africa
PO Box 392
0003 UNISA
Republic of South Africa.

For further information and questions relating to the colloquium, please contact Philip Bosman at the e-mail and postal addresses given above.